Re: United States v. Khaled Zahran
06 CR 548 (SRC)

Dear Judge Chesler:

The court recently signed an order permitting my client, Khaled Zahran, to travel to Jordan. Mr. Zahran is currently on Supervised Release after having been sentenced to time served by the court on October 7, 2008. Due to the fact that his travel documents, which were originally seized upon his arrest, were misplaced by a government agency, he was not able to travel when previously scheduled. Mr. Zahran still has extremely urgent legal business in Jordan involving his marital situation, as well as custody issues concerning his young child. All parties agree that Mr. Zahran should be permitted to travel to Jordan for the purposes stated herein. I have enclosed a copy of the second authorization already prepared by the Probation Department and respectfully request that Your Honor So Order the authorization letter permitting Mr. Zahran to travel to Jordan, as set forth in that document.

Respectfully,

Lee Ginsberg
